Kingdom and Northern Europe (Bordeaux to Wallhann, inclusive) to ports on the United States Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf Coasts.

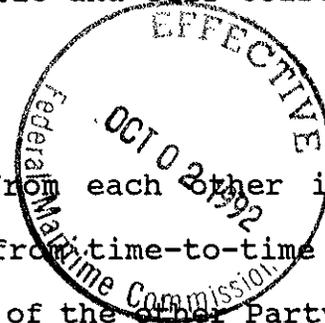

5. Agreement Authority.

5.1 The Parties may charter space to/from each other in such amounts and upon such terms as they may from time-to-time agree. All space chartered by a Party on a vessel of the other Party shall be utilized for the transport of automobiles, spare automobile parts and accessories, and such other lawful cargo as it shall control, pursuant to each Party's port-to-port or intermodal tariff.

5.2 The Parties may consult and agree upon sailing schedules, service frequency, ports to be served and port rotation.

5.3 The Parties may agree upon the number, size and type of vessels to be operated by them under this Agreement. The utilized capacity of each vessel to be operated in any calendar month under this Agreement, shall not exceed without further amendment, 3,500 passenger car units.

5.4 The Parties may, individually or jointly, negotiate contracts for the use of equipment, terminal facilities, suppliers and services, stevedoring services, and other related ocean and shoreside services and supplies, in the United States and elsewhere. To the extent any such agreements may be reached which require filing pursuant to section 5 of the Shipping Act of 1984, they shall not be carried out by the Parties until they have become

7. Membership.

Not applicable.

8. Voting.

Decisions implementing or amending this Agreement shall be by unanimous vote of the Parties.

9. Duration; Termination.

9.1 This Agreement shall be effective as of the date it becomes effective under the Shipping Act of 1984 and has received any required governmental approvals. The Parties shall notify the Commission in writing of the date on which any other required governmental approvals are granted.

9.2 This Agreement shall be for an initial period of one (1) year beginning as of the effective date (the "Initial Period"). After the expiration of the Initial Period, this Agreement shall continue for consecutive one (1) year periods (each an "Additional Period") unless either Party withdraws. This Agreement may be terminated at any time by mutual consent of the Parties.

9.3 Either Party may withdraw from this Agreement at the end of the Initial Period or any Additional Period by giving at least ninety (90) days written notice prior to the end of the applicable Period.

10. Applicable Law.

The interpretation, construction and enforcement of this Agreement, and all rights and obligations between the Parties under this Agreement, shall be governed by the laws of Great Britain, to the extent not inconsistent with the Shipping Act of 1984.

11. Arbitration.

Any and all disputes arising out of or in connection with this Agreement shall be resolved by reference to a single arbitrator in London, England for arbitration pursuant to the British Arbitration Act of 1979, as amended at the time of appointment of the arbitrator. The arbitrator shall be appointed by agreement between the Parties within 14 days after service by one Party upon the other of a notice specifying the nature of the dispute or claim and requiring reference of the dispute or claim to arbitration pursuant to this Article. Failing agreement upon an arbitrator within a period of 14 days, then upon application by either Party, the arbitrator shall be appointed by the President of the London Maritime Arbitrators' Association. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, binding and not subject to further review.

12. Non-Assignability.

The rights and obligations of the Parties hereunder shall not be assigned by any Party to any other person except upon the
