affirmatively states in writing (including e-mail) that it agrees to be bound. In stating that it agrees to be bound by all or part of any Agreement Action, a party may establish limitations on the extent to which it is so bound. A party may thereafter choose not to be bound by any Agreement Action in accordance with the provisions of Article XI hereof. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to bind any party hereto to any additional agreement(s) or understanding(s) reached as a result of meetings, discussions or exchanges of information under this Agreement.

(b) ADDITIONAL PARTIES MEMBERS. Upon a vote of the parties, additional marine terminal operators shall be allowed to join this Agreement in accordance with the requirements of the Act and FMC regulations, ~~; PROVIDED a majority of the current members vote in favor of the application for membership.~~

(c) WITHDRAWAL. Any party may withdraw from the Agreement at any time by giving written notice to the Secretary; provided, however, that such withdrawal shall not relieve a party of its obligations for its share of Agreement administrative expenses for the period prior to the effective date of its withdrawal or for its share of an existing Agreement financial obligation to a third party (e.g., a contract with a vendor), if that party's withdrawal from the Agreement would directly increase the cost obligation of the remaining parties for such Agreement financial obligation, with respect to the portion of the current term (exclusive of extensions) of such obligation remaining at the time the party's withdrawal becomes effective, or for a period of one (1) year after the effective date of withdrawal, whichever is shorter.

(d) REVOCATION. A party's membership may be revoked by a ~~majority~~-vote of the current parties. If a party's membership is revoked for reasons other than failure to fulfill its obligations hereunder (including the payment of its share of Agreement expenses) or failure to continue to qualify for membership, it shall not be liable for any Agreement expenses or liabilities with respect to the period after the effective date of the revocation of its membership.

(e) PROCEDURE. Any addition to the membership, withdrawal or revocation shall require the parties to amend or modify this Agreement. Such amendment or modification shall be filed with the FMC and shall become effective in accordance with the Act and FMC regulations.

ARTICLE IV. GEOGRAPHIC SCOPE.

This Agreement shall apply to all of the ports within the States of California, Oregon, and Washington in which the parties hereto are engaged in activities involving or relating to ocean transportation of cargo in the foreign commerce of the United States. The parties may, pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, limit their discussions and/or the application of any decisions reached hereunder to a portion of the geographic scope of this Agreement.

ARTICLE V. MEMBERSHIP ELIGIBILITY.

Only marine terminal operators whose business involves ocean transportation in the foreign commerce of the United States within the geographic scope of this Agreement are eligible to become parties to this Agreement.

ARTICLE VI. DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY.

ARTICLE VII. ADMINISTRATION OF AGREEMENT.

(a) CHAIRMAN. The parties to this Agreement shall select a Chairman to preside at all meetings held pursuant to this Agreement. The Chairman shall be selected from among the members of the Executive Committee and shall also serve as Chairman of the Executive Committee. ~~The initial Chairman is John Miller whose address is International Transportation Services, Inc., 1281 Pear J Ave., Long Beach, CA 90802.~~

(b) SECRETARY. The parties to this Agreement shall select a Secretary to be responsible for all administrative tasks as directed by the vote of the parties hereto. ~~The initial Secretary of this Agreement is Mark Johnson whose address is 1850 M Street, NW, Suite 910, Washington, DC 20036.~~ The Secretary shall schedule meetings upon receiving a request for a meeting, giving all parties hereto a minimum of seven days' notice and distributing a proposed meeting agenda. The Secretary shall be responsible for recording the minutes of all meetings held pursuant to this Agreement.

(c) FUNDING. The parties members to this Agreement shall have the power to impose and collect membership fees to pay the costs and expenses incurred in the administration of this Agreement, including the fees and charges of counsel and other service providers, provided that such costs and expenses have been approved by the parties members in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. Unless otherwise unanimously agreed, each party's share of the costs and expenses of this Agreement shall be based on its share of the total Revenue Units of the parties.

(e) ONE CLASS. The membership under this Agreement shall consist of one class.

(f) REPRESENTATIVES. Each party member shall designate a representative and may designate an alternate who shall be authorized to vote on its behalf on any matter coming before a meeting of the parties to this Agreement.

(i) VOTING. All references to a "vote" or "voting" in this Agreement shall mean voting in accordance with this section VII(i). Voting shall be based on Revenue Units. Each party shall be entitled to a vote equal to the percentage obtained by dividing its individual Revenue Units (and those of its affiliates named herein) by the total Revenue Units of the parties. Agreement decisions shall require a majority vote, which shall be the affirmative vote of at least 50.1% of the total Revenue Units of the parties; provided, however, that amendments to this Agreement shall require the affirmative vote of at least 66.6% of the total Revenue Units of the parties; and, provided further, that an amendment to Article VII(c) revising the basis upon which costs are allocated shall require the affirmative vote of 100% of the Revenue Units of the parties. geographic region of the Agreement, only parties with a terminal in that region shall be entitled to vote on such proposal and only such parties' Revenue Units shall be counted in determining whether the necessary vote for such proposal has occurred. For purposes of this section, the Agreement shall have the following geographic regions: Southern California (Los Angeles/Long Beach and ports south thereof), Northern California (ports in the San Francisco Bay area) and the Pacific Northwest (ports in Oregon and Washington). Notwithstanding the definition of "Revenue Units" in Article II(b)(iii), in the event of a vote on matters within the scope of Article II(e), cargo within the scope of Article II(e) shall be included in the calculation of the parties' Revenue Units. ~~Each member shall be entitled to one vote. All actions taken shall be authorized by majority vote of the members present and voting.~~

(a) DURATION. This Agreement shall become effective when permitted by 46 U.S.C. app. § 1705 and continue until terminated.

(b) Intentionally left blank. ~~MODIFICATION. The terms of this Agreement may be amended or modified by majority vote of the parties.~~

(c) TERMINATION. This Agreement shall continue in effect indefinitely until terminated by a ~~majority~~ vote of the parties members.

(d) PROCEDURE. Copies of any modification, amendment or termination of this Agreement shall be filed with the Federal Maritime Commission and shall become effective as provided in the Act and FMC regulations.

ARTICLE IX. PARTIES' OBLIGATIONS.

(a) SECURITY. The parties each agree to deposit in such account or with such entity as they may designate from time to time cash, a surety bond or a confirmed irrevocable letter of credit in such amount as they may agree from time to time. The amount of the security may be the same for all parties or may vary based on Revenue Unites or such other factors as the parties may agree from time to time. The form and terms of the security shall be approved by the parties. Any interest paid on the deposit shall be for the account of the depositing party and may be paid directly to it.

The foregoing deposit shall constitute security to the Agreement and the parties for the depositor's obligation to pay expenses and liabilities of the Agreement incurred during the time of its membership. If the security shall have been resorted to in whole or in part on account of the failure of the party to pay its share of Agreement expenses, the party providing such security shall, within ten (10) working days' notice of same, deposit in the account additional security of the kind stated above sufficient to restore the deposit its original level.

The security deposit shall remain on deposit for a period of one hundred eighty (180) days after the withdrawal or termination of membership of a party and then shall be released unless the remaining parties have determined that there is good cause to believe that such security may be required to satisfy the party's obligations under this Agreement.

In the event any party fails to renew its security deposit at least thirty (30) days prior to its expiry or fails to restore the security deposit as required hereunder, upon 48 hours written notice to the party, the Chairman shall draw upon the full amount of such security deposit which is outstanding. The proceeds of such drawing shall be maintained in an account designated by the Chairman and such proceeds shall be applied to delinquent obligations of the party under this Agreement. At such time as the security is restored by a party and such security is adequate to cover any still outstanding delinquent obligations, any remaining balance of the proceeds shall be returned to such party.

(b) ADHERENCE. It shall be a breach of this Agreement for any party to provide marine terminal services within the geographic scope of this Agreement (or a portion thereof) upon terms and conditions inconsistent with those to which it is bound pursuant to procedures under Article II(d).

ARTICLE X. ARBITRATION

Any dispute between or among any parties concerning or based upon this Agreement shall in all cases be referred for resolution to a single arbitrator in Los Angeles, CA, to be appointed by the mutual agreement of the two sides in the arbitration or, failing such agreement and upon application by any party, by the President of the Society of Maritime Arbitrators, Inc. Except by agreement of the parties to the dispute, there shall be no pre-hearing discovery. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, binding, and not subject to further review and may be enforced by a prevailing party in any court having jurisdiction. The costs and expenses of such arbitration (including reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred by a party or parties) shall be borne by the non-prevailing party or as the arbitrator shall otherwise determine.

ARTICLE XI. RIGHT OF DISASSOCIATION.

(a) Except as provided by paragraph (b) below, any party may, on not less than five (5) business days' advance notice, elect not to be bound by all or any portion of an Agreement Action to which it had previously agreed to be bound by providing written notice of disassociation from that Agreement Action to the Chairman of the Agreement. Such notice shall include a description of the Agreement Action (or portion thereof) from which the party is disassociating itself. The Chairman shall promptly forward the notice to all other parties. After a party has given notice of disassociation, the parties are authorized (but not required) to confer regarding the disassociation and to take action in response thereto, including action for purposes of reaching a compromise.

(b) In the event a party disassociates itself from an Agreement Action by which it was previously bound, and such Action involves an existing Agreement financial obligation to a third party (e.g., a contract with a vendor), and the cost obligation of the other parties bound to such Agreement Action will increase as a direct result of the party's disassociation, the exercise of the right of disassociation shall not relieve the disassociating party from its obligation to pay its share of such financial obligation with respect to that portion of the current term (exclusive of extensions) of such obligation remaining at the time the party's disassociation becomes effective, or for a period of one (1) year after the effective date of disassociation, whichever is shorter.

(c) A party may delay the effectiveness of a notice of disassociation or withdraw it at any time before the expiry of the notice period by providing written notice of delay or withdrawal to the Chairman. A party which has disassociated itself from an Agreement Action (or a portion thereof) may reassociate itself with and become bound by such Action (or a portion thereof) with immediate effect by so notifying the
