ARTICLE 1. NAME OF THE AGREEMENT

This Agreement shall be known as the Caribbean Shipowners Association, hereinafter called the "Association".

ARTICLE 2. PURPOSE

This Association is to provide a forum among ocean common carriers serving the geographic scope as hereinafter defined to discuss and agree on rates, charges, rules, classifications, and practices governing the transportation of cargo, whether moving in all water or in through transportation service under through bill of lading or otherwise, in the trade. The objectives of the Association are to establish and maintain competitive, non-destructive liner services in the trade for the purpose of fostering commerce and stability in the trade while maintaining competition and freedom of carrier action.

ARTICLE 5. AUTHORITY

Any two or more parties shall have the authority on a voluntary basis to:

- A. discuss; agree upon, and establish uniform or differential rates, charges, classifications, rules and regulations applicable thereto (hereinafter "tariff provisions") in connection with the transportation of cargo moving within the all-water and intermodal Association authority to be established by the parties via their respective routes including tariff provisions relating to cargo space accommodations; inland factors; surcharges; arbitraries; absorptions; equalization; currency adjustment factors; alternate port service; proportional rates, through rates, joint through rates or other intermodal rates, time/volume rates; the opening and closing of rates with or without a floor/ceiling; service contracts; receipt, handling delivering, and storing of cargo; consolidation and allowances applicable thereto; designation of base ports; terminal and port charges, wharfage, container detention, free time, per diem, cargo demurrage; positioning of containers, chassis and related equipment; container yards, depots, and freight stations; interchange with connecting carriers; payment for services rendered or received including credit rules and privileges and the enforcement (including suspension and restoration of credit privileges thereof among the member lines), commission, brokerage and freight forwarder compensation and conditions thereof, and any other ancillary services in connection with ocean transportation of cargo;
- B. discuss and enter into agreements with other carriers serving the trade not members of this Association or other conferences serving the trade or the foreign destinations of the trade; provided, however, such agreements shall not be implemented until filed and effective pursuant to the terms of the Shipping Act, 1984;
- C. discuss and exchange information including statistics or compilations or analyses thereof, relating to transportation conditions in the trade;
- D. implement this authority through individual tariffs;
- E. negotiate with any shipper's Association as defined in Section 3(24) of the Shipping Act, 1984;

- F. Charter space to, from or among each other on an ad hoc basis on vessels owned or operated by them in the trade on such terms and conditions as they shall agree and may also jointly establish sailing schedules, port rotation, limit sailing and jointly advertise each others vessels.

The Association shall submit to the FMC separate and sequentially numbered confidential records on a quarterly calendar year basis reporting all ad hoc, sporadic or emergency charter arrangements entered into between or among the Members pursuant thereto and specifying, for each such arrangement, (I) the names of the chartering and underlying carrier parties; (ii) the amount of space chartered expressed in twenty foot equivalent container units (TEUs); (iii) the commencement and termination dates; and (iv) the port or ports from or to which it applies. Any ongoing or long-term charter arrangements between or among Association members shall be filed with the Federal Maritime Commission as a separate and discrete agreement.

ARTICLE 6. OFFICIALS AND DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY

The members of the Association, in authorized meetings, shall constitute the plenary authority. An authorized meeting shall include, in addition to meetings of the members, discussions and agreements between or among any two or more members. The Association shall appoint an Executive Director who shall serve at the pleasure of the Association.

The Executive Director shall carry out all decisions of the Association, including but not limited to obtaining and maintaining office facilities and retaining a staff; maintaining records as required by law or the Association; filing reports as required by law or the Association; receiving and acting upon shippers' requests and complaints; filing of tariffs and amendments thereto if applicable; negotiating routine housekeeping contracts; and such other duties as the Association requires in the efficient, lawful function of the Association.

The Association meetings shall include meetings of the members and may, from time to time, establish standing, ad hoc, and any other committees and sub-committees ("committees") as they consider necessary to conduct the business of the Association and the decision of the committees shall be deemed the decision of the Association, unless specifically limited by the Association.

ARTICLE 6. OFFICIALS AND DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY (Continued)

Unless otherwise unanimously agreed, each member shall be entitled to full and equal membership on any committee established by the Association and, subject to the following limitation for Executive Committee meetings, may designate the person or persons selected to represent it for said purposes. Executive Committee Meetings shall convene, at least, three times annually and be attended only by one or more senior executives of the member without the presence of its agent. The Association may also conduct its business through oral, written, telephone, telegraphic and telex polls upon which Association action is taken.

The Executive Director, or a member of the Association staff designated by him, shall chair meetings of the Association and its committees. Provided, however, that in the absence of the Chairman, or the staff member so designated at any such meeting upon the decision of the members, any person representing a member at a meeting may be appointed by the members to chair that meeting.

ARTICLE 7. MEMBERSHIP, WITHDRAWAL, READMISSION AND EXPULSION

- A. Any ocean common carrier serving the trade may become a member of this Agreement.
- B. Each member shall pay a reasonable admission fee, as determined from time to time by the Association (but in no event to exceed the total annual projected budget of the Association divided by the number of members). Each new member shall pay the then current admission fee upon application, and this fee is not refundable. The Federal Maritime Commission shall be advised of the amount of such admission fee no later than thirty (30) days after the establishment thereof.
- C. Any member may resign, including from a section of the Association, upon at least thirty (30) days written notice to the Executive Director. During this written notice period such member shall not be entitled to vote (if applicable) on any matter. Notice of resignation will be effective in accordance with the applicable Shipping Act law.
- D. Any former member may be readmitted without penalty provided, however, that previous debts to the Association, if any, are fully paid and it meets the conditions set forth in subparagraphs A and B hereof.
- E. Any member can be expelled for failure to maintain an ocean common carrier service in the trade for a period of one hundred twenty (120) consecutive days, force majeure and strike periods excepted; or for failure to abide by the terms of the agreement. An explanation will be served upon that member with copy to the appropriate office of the Federal Maritime Commission detailing the basis for expulsion prior to its effective date.

ARTICLE 7. MEMBERSHIP, WITHDRAWAL, READMISSION AND EXPULSION (Continued)

- F. The filing of a notice of resignation does not, until the resignation become effective relieve a member of its obligations under this Agreement. Computation of outstanding obligations of any resigning member shall include any amount reflecting pro-rata share of continuing obligations for six months subsequent to the effective date of the member's resignation with respect to the Agreement's expenses and liabilities incurred prior to the receipt of the notice of resignation by the Executive Director.

ARTICLE 8. VOTING PROCEDURES

Decisions reached under this Section shall be by mutual agreement of all participating members, it being fully understood that no member is required to adhere, other than voluntarily, to any decision reached. Any discussions between or among any two or more members of a Discussion Section in which agreements are reached, shall be by mutual agreement of those members participating, it being fully understood that no member is required to adhere, other than voluntarily, to any decision reached.

ARTICLE 9. DURATION & TERMINATION

This Agreement shall be effective upon its filing with the Federal Maritime Commission and effectiveness pursuant to Shipping Act, 1984 and shall remain in effect until terminated. This Agreement may be terminated by the unanimous vote less one of the Association members entitled to vote or by the resignation of all members less one.

ARTICLE 10. PROHIBITED ACTS

The Association shall not boycott or take any other action resulting in a refusal to deal, or engage in any predatory practice designed to eliminate the participation, or deny entry in a particular trade, of a common carrier not a member of the Association, a group of common carriers, an ocean tramp, or a bulk carrier.

ARTICLE 11. CONSULTATION, SHIPPERS' REQUEST AND COMPLAINTS

Rules implementing requests for consultation and shippers requests or complaints (hereinafter collectively referred to as shipper requests) shall be published in the tariff(s). Shipper requests will be received by the Executive Director or any member line which will immediately transmit it to the Executive Director. Upon receipt by the Executive Director, the Executive Director shall place the shipper request on the next Association agenda for action by the Association. The Executive Director shall promptly inform the shipper of the disposition of its request upon Association consideration.

ARTICLE 12. INDEPENDENT ACTION

Each member may take Independent Action without notification to the other members or Association.

ARTICLE 13. SERVICE CONTRACTS

- A. The Association may enter into and implement service contracts as defined in Section 3(19) of the Shipping Act of 1984 including, but not limited to, service contracts covering excepted commodities. Any such service contract will be a contract of the Association on behalf of any one or more of its members. Any Member may, individually or jointly with other members, separately and independently from the Association, enter into service contracts for cargo moving within the Trade. Any member's individual contract may also include cargo moving outside the Trade, but only to the extent that the volume of such cargo will be applied toward the aggregate volume committed by the shipper; and the Members are authorized, but not required, to discuss the terms of such service contracts.
- B. Members may elect not to participate, or to limit their participation, in any Association service contract by appropriate written notification to the Executive Director prior to execution of any such contract specifying their election not to participate or the limitation on their participation. Any service contract shall specify those Members not participating, or if participating in a limited manner, the limitation of their participation. A Member which has initially elected not to participate in an Agreement service contract or to limit its participation may, prior to the service contract's expiration, elect to participate or remove its limitation as to its participation by notifying the Executive Director in writing which shall include the effective date that its participation shall begin or the limitation is removed.

ARTICLE 14. MEETINGS AND PROCEDURES

- A. Regular Association meetings shall be held as agreed upon by the members. Upon the request of at least two (2) members and upon forty-eight (48) hours notice, the Executive Director shall call special meetings. In all other respects, the Association shall determine notice for other meetings, contents of agenda, and meeting procedures.
- B. Notwithstanding sub-paragraph (a) hereof, any two (2) or more parties may hold meetings with one another pursuant to the authority of this Agreement.
- C. Any agreement reached at meetings taking place pursuant to sub-paragraph (b) hereof shall be Minuted in writing and copies of such meetings shall be delivered to the Executive Director for distribution to the other members of the Agreement and to the Federal Maritime Commission.

ARTICLE 15. EXPENSES AND OFFICE ARRANGEMENTS

Expenses of the Association shall be apportioned among the members as they agree from time to time. The Executive Director shall maintain all financial records including checking accounts. The Executive Director shall sign all checks on behalf of the Association.

ARTICLE 16. DEFINITIONS

Words defined in the Shipping Act of 1984 and the Federal Maritime Commission regulations promulgated pursuant to the Act have the same definition and meaning when used in this Agreement.

ARTICLE 17. FILING AGENT

Each member hereof appoints, in writing, the Association Executive Director as its representative on behalf of such member to file with the Federal Maritime Commission this Agreement and all amendments or republications thereof. This Agreement and each amendment or republication of the Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, and all such counterparts shall constitute one Agreement, notwithstanding that all parties are not signatory to the same counterpart.

ARTICLE 18. ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATIONS

The members may implement the Association Agreement through administrative regulations, resolutions and decisions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Members have executed these revisions as of this 6th day of June 2003.
