Tokyo, 105-0004 Japan
(hereafter, “KYOWA”)

ARTICLE 4 GEOGRAPHIC SCOPE OF THE AGREEMENT

The scope of this Agreement is transportation of vehicles and other cargo from various coastal ports in Japan to ports of Guam and Saipan on KYOWA's Micronesia Service (the foregoing geographic scope referred to in this Agreement as "the Trade").

ARTICLE 5 OVERVIEW OF AGREEMENT AUTHORITY

5.1 KYOWA is authorized to charter space to MOL in the Agreement Trade on an "as needed/as available" basis, up to the full reach of a vessel, on vessels owned, chartered, or managed by it, on such terms and conditions as the parties may agree from time to time. To facilitate efficient operations under this Agreement, the parties may discuss and agree upon their space requirements and the availability of such space in vessel owned, chartered, or managed by KYOWA for MOL shipments. The place and timing of the provision of space; procedures for booking space, for documentation, for special cargo handling instructions or requirements, and for other administrative matters relating to chartering and transportation provided under this Agreement; and the terms and conditions for the use or interchange of equipment useful in the carriage of cargo in the Trade covered by this Agreement.

5.2 Compensation for any space chartered pursuant to this Agreement shall be upon such terms and at such hire (expressed either as a fixed sum or as a percentage of freight) as the parties may from time to time agree. Billing and payment terms and conditions shall also be as agreed between the parties from time to time.

5.3 ~~The Parties may discuss and agree upon the terminal(s) to be called by the vessels operated hereunder as well as the stevedore(s) that will service such vessels, and/or the volume of cargo to be handled by such terminals or stevedores. In furtherance of the foregoing, the Parties are authorized to discuss, exchange information, and/or coordinate negotiations with marine terminal operators or stevedores relating to operational matters such as port schedules and berthing windows; availability of port facilities, equipment and services; contract duration; adequacy of throughput; and the procedures of the interchange of operational data in a legally compliant matter. Nothing herein, however, shall authorize the parties jointly to operate a marine terminal in the United States nor to jointly negotiate for or jointly procure terminal services at U.S. ports, nor to discuss or agree upon the rates charged to their respective shipper customers, or to engage in capacity rationalization.~~ ~~are authorized to discuss and agree upon arrangements for the use of terminals in connection with the chartering space hereunder, including entering into exclusive, preferential or cooperative working arrangements with marine terminal operators and any person relating to marine terminal, stevedoring or other shore side services. Nothing herein, however, shall authorize the parties jointly to operate a marine terminal in the United States.~~

5.4 The parties are authorized to exchange information on any matter within the scope of this Agreement and to reach agreement on any and all administrative and operational functions related hereto including, but not limited to, forecasting, terminal operations, stowage planning, insurance, liability, cargo claims, indemnities, the terms of their respective bill of lading, failure to perform and force majeure.

5.5 The parties authorized to enter into agreements concerning routine operational or administrative matters to implement the foregoing. Any further agreement which does not concern routine operational or administrative matters cannot go into effect unless filed and effective under the Shipping Act of 1984, as amended.

ARTICLE 6 OFFICIALS OF THE AGREEMENT AND DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

The following shall have the authority to amend this Agreement and any modification hereto and to delegate same:
